

Forced Migration

- environmental and socioeconomic dimensions -

Perspectives of higher education institutions in development cooperation

19th October 2016 in Berlin, Germany

On behalf of the Exceed Centers, we are pleased to invite you to the first Exceed Conference. The conference will bring together researchers, politicians and the public to explore and discuss environmental and socioeconomic dimensions of forced migration. Causes, mechanisms and coping strategies will be tackled on.

CONFERENCE TOPICS

BRAIN DRAIN • CLIMATE CHANGE • DEFORESTATION • INADEQUATE HEALTH SYSTEM •
LAND GRABBING • MARKET LIBERALIZATION • MONOCULTURE FARMING • OVERFISHING
• POPULATION GROWTH • SOIL EROSION • UNEMPLOYMENT • WATER CRIME •
WATER POLLUTION • WATER SCARCITY
... as causes of forced migration.

Registration fee 50.00 € / Exceed partners are exempted.

The registration fee covers the entrance fee, coffee breaks and lunch. It does not include accommodation in Berlin, nor does it include local and international transport.

In 2009, five German higher education institutions - Technical University Braunschweig, University of Hohenheim, University of Kassel, Cologne University of Applied Sciences and Ludwig-Maximilians-University München - were selected to be part of the Excellence for Development Cooperation (Exceed) Program by the German Academic Exchange Service (DAAD) and the German Federal Ministry for Economic Cooperation and Development (BMZ). Since then, these Centers together with their 37 partners in developing countries, have been establishing think tanks to contribute to the post-2015 development agenda.

Please register through our website

www.exceed.global

Deadline: 30th September 2016

Organized by

Funded by

With financial support from

Contact

Phone: +49-89-4400-52491

Fax: +49-89-4400-54954

E-mail: exceed.conference@lrz.uni-muenchen.de